

General Performance Clinic

May 19th at Cloud 9 Ranch with Tara Reimer

Do you enjoy showing at light horse shows and fairs or want to start? Even if you want to start with the Walk/Jog classes, attend this clinic to receive a wealth of knowledge and practice! Clinician, Tara Reimer, has experience as a long time judge, trainer, competitor and coach to provide insight from all angles. This annual clinic covers general performance classes including Halter, Showmanship, Lunge Line, English/Western Rail/Patterns, Trail and Reining.

9:00 am sharp starting with Halter then Showmanship. Bring your show tack if you want to see that it fits and looks just right. Near the end of the clinic, at about 4:00 pm, participants can receive a 20 minute private lesson with Tara. This is included in clinic fee. Bring your own lunch or be prepared to order in from a local restaurant.

Learn how to prepare for your class, what the judge is looking for, how to improve your placings and so much more! Whether you are just considering on entering the show ring or if you are a seasoned exhibitor, this clinic provides you with tools to improve your horsemanship, give your horse and you confidence in the arena, as well as demystify the show ring! Plus horse people are always fun to hang around with!

Tara has 36+ years of experience as an AQHA and Open Show Exhibitor. She is an EC Judge and a CHA Clinic Instructor *2013 Instructor of the Year. Visit www.cloud9ranch.ca or watch Steinbach Instructor Receives Worldwide Recognition
